

RED-INK Kick-off (IC01)

April Sun 6 (dinner)-Sat 10 (morning)

Location

Grotto Rossi & Residence Vallombrosa, Castelrotto, Malcantone

Guest speakers

Anne-Nelly Perret-Clermont, Pascale Hardy, Martin Eppler

Schedule

Sunday 6.4 night: Welcome and presentations

19.15 Dinner together with individual presentations

Monday 7.4: Foundations & Your Research

9.00-10.00 Lorenzo Cantoni, eLearning: an historical and communication perspective

10:00 – 11:00 Pierre Dillenbourg, The evolution of CSCL Research, from virtual to physical

Break

11:15 – 12:00 Poster & “Why questions” session 1 (hanging posters and walkaround)

12:00-12:30 Short logistic information for the seminar by Luca

Lunch

14:00 – 15:00 Dieter Euler, Learning Cultures in HEI - a preliminary framework

Break

15:15-17:00 Poster & “why questions” session 2 (3 or 4 students)

17:00-18:30 Lorenzo Cantoni, Pierre Dillenbourg, Dieter Euler, What do you expect from red-inklings? (panel)

Free time

19.15 Dinner

20.30 University groups evening (free or indications about the program, deadlines, etc.)

Tuesday 8.4

9:00-10:45 Anne-Nelly Perret-Clermont – part I
Break
11:00-12:45 Pascale Hardy – part I
Lunch
14:00-16:30 Poster & “why questions” session 3 (3 or 4 students)
16:30-17:15 Collaborative mapping of research projects (facilitated by Luca Botturi)
Break
17:30-18:45 Testimonial: what is it to be a researcher? A.-N. Perret-Clermont & M. Eppler
Free time
19.15 Dinner
20.30 Wine tasting at Cantina Zündel

Wednesday 9.4

9:00-10:45 Anne-Nelly Perret-Clermont – part II
Break
11:00-12:45 Pascale Hardy – part II
Lunch
14:00-16.00 Visita a Villa Orizzonte, con Daniele Ryser e Fabio Guindani
16:30-17:30 SCIL eLearning Reviews (facilitated by Franziska Zellweger)
17:30-18:00 Management and organization (Schedule, money, logistics + Summer School FNSRS)
Free time
19.15 Dinner

20.30 Free evening

Thursday 10.4

9.00-12:30 Pierre Dillenbourg: The history of technologies in education

Lunch

Follow-up: reviews of readings from Guest Speakers