

Computer-Supported Collaborative Learning

Schwarzsee (CH), March 9th – 11th 2009

Group session will be organized as follows, On Tuesday, we have 45 min sessions during which you have a 15 minutes to present your PhD, followed by 30 min group discussion. Group 1 will be chaired by Prof. Teasley and group 2 by Prof Fischer. The senior and junior members of RedInk will join the groups as they want. During the last session on Tuesday, we will select two research questions that are present across the different PhD projects that have been presented. These questions will be discussed in two groups on Wednesday morning

Programme

Monday March 9th

- 16:00 Bus at Fribourg train station at 16:10. The bus 'Taxi Sarine' will be on your left when you exit the station. If you are a few minutes late, call Hamed (079 599 34 47) so that the bus waits for you. If you come later, take a public bus or taxi.
- 17:30 Coffee at the hotel <http://www.hostellerieamschwarzsee.ch/>
- 18:00 Welcome and Presentation of participants
- 18:30 Prof. Frank Fischer, "Getting Rid of Scripts"
<http://www.psy.lmu.de/ffp/Persons/AG-Fischer/Fischer-Frank-Prof-Dr.html>
- 20:00 Dinner

Tuesday March 10th

- 08:30 Prof. Stephanie Teasley, "Courseware in the Wild: Supporting University Students' Collaborative Learning."
<http://www.crew.umich.edu/people/teasley.html>
- 10:00 Coffee pause
- 10:30 Group 1: Hamed Alavi Group 2: Chrysi Rapanta
- 11:15 Group 1: Quentin Bonnard Group 2: Sylvia de Ascaniis
- 12:00 Lunch & ski
- 16:30 Group 1: Jenny Dommen Group 2: Andreas Schmeil
- 17:15 Coffee Pause
- 17:45 Group 1: Son Do Lenh Group 2: Taiga Brahm
- 18:30 Emerging shared research questions (Pierre)
- 20:00 Dinner

Wednesday March 11th

- 9:00 Group 1: Question A Group 2: Question B
- 10:32 Coffee pause
- 11:00 Evaluation of RedInk activities so far (By Lucca Botturi)
- 12:00 Lunch / ski
- 13:30 Bus to Fribourg train station
-